THE DEPUTY MINISTER IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRI BIREN SINGH ENGTI): (a) and (b) Part (a) of the Question is not clear. It may, however, be stated that consolidated guidelines on framing of recruitment rules were issued in May, 1979. According to these guidelines, action to frame recruitment rules is required to be initiated as soon as decision is taken to create a new post. The question of framing rules piecemeal should not arise normally.

(c) Observance of the guidelines, in general, is ensured by the following existing procedure:

(i) Ministries/Departments are required to refer for concurrence draft recruitment rules for all Group A and B posts to Department of Personnel and Training (and also to UPSC unless the posts are exempted from their purview) before these are notified.

(ii) They may notify recruitment rules for Groups 'C' and 'D' posts, provided the rules are framed in accordance with the guidelines. Where in any case it is proposed to make a departure, the concurrence of this Department has to be obtained by them.

(d) and (e) In view of the position explained above, these do not arise.
